WINE, NIBBLES, THEN INTERESTING REPORTS

Over thirty people turned out for last month's Annual Parish Meeting, which began with a warm-up of wine and nibbles. Reports were read by representatives of all the bodies who look after aspects of our community life. Go to the website for full texts from PC Chairman and Clerk, County and District Council, Upton Village Hall Amenities Trust, Blewbury School, Public Transport and Footpaths Reps, Neighbourhood Watch, United Charities of Ancient Parish of Blewbury, and more. They make good reading.

Graham de Wilde, PC Chairman, recalled that the year opened with an election for a new councillor, which brought us Sarah Whatmore, a great asset who is chairing the Amenities and Environment Committee. Yvonne Collins' high level of professionalism will be hard to replace when she stands down as clerk in June.

No-one has yet offered to fill her post. He estimated that last year Parish Councillors fielded 700 e-mails, and attended numerous meetings, dealt with planning applications, made submissions and ploughed through many documents from the Vale, OCC and SERA. He thanked Brian Simpson for becoming the internal auditor, and 'Mr and Mrs Churchman, who, come rain or shine, make sure the recreation ground gates are opened and closed each day'.

On behalf of the Parochial Church Council Julian Sayers said that the fabric of St. Mary's was in good shape, the church now holds special family services at 10am and is part of a much enlarged Benefice, and Father Edwin Clements is retiring next year. See over for Mike Brown's thought-provoking post-Parish Plan progress report.

PC Mike Brown's hard work

The Parish Plan questionnaire provided data about your interests in Social, Learning and Voluntary activities. So let's see how things are going. Wine Tasting is up and running (see Diary p.1). I organised four meetings to try to launch other Social activities: Walking/Cycling, Theatre/Sightseeing Trips, Musical Events and Village Society/Discussion Group. Invitations went to all those I could identify as interested.

Walking/Cycling. Out of 44 invitations four people turned up. We arranged a walk for May 14 (see Diary).

Theatre/Sightseeing Trips. 40 invitations were sent and 13 people attended, most of whom interested in theatre. Malcolm Wright, Irene Timblich and Mike Collins agreed to sort out a trial venture (see Diary).

Musical Events. 25 invitations sent and nine people appeared. Sarah Tennant-Flowers and Simon Powell agreed to make up a short questionnaire to see just what people's interests were.

To the Village Society/ Discussion Group meeting 24 were invited and five people attended. After an hour's discussion we reluctantly came to the conclusion that we could not find sufficient common ground to take either idea forward. I will go on with meetings to cover Skittles, Jigsaws, Drama and Table Tennis.

See Diary for the Keep Fit Club. If anyone would take other Learning activities off me I would much appreciate help.

In my opinion, for Voluntary activities alone the Parish Plan is worth all the effort. We are already making visits for a chat, or offering help by driving to hospital, doctors, dentists, even shopping. We understand there can be sensitivity in asking, but we want all parishioners to know that we would like to be able to help them. Clare Lightfoot, Margaret Maytham and Elisabeth Wright are kindly looking into the demand for these services The ORCC have offered practical assistance.

I am very hopeful that this can make a significant improvement to the quality of life of some people and they will be able to get real pleasure from what we offer.

Once again we can be proud of our Litter Picking Day. The Manual Group have performed fantastically when called upon, particularly five or six stalwarts. Saving to the parish in the last year probably amounts to £700.
